

Chapter 14.26CONSTRUCTION AND ABANDONMENT OF WATER WELLS

(1919-6/74)

Sections:

- 14.26.010 Adoption of county regulations
- 14.26.020 Requirements augment existing regulations
- 14.26.030 Designation of advisory board
- 14.26.040 Adaptation of designations
- 14.26.050 Permit fee schedule

14.26.010 Adoption of county regulations. Except as herein otherwise provided, that certain document entitled Ordinance No. 2607 of the County of Orange relating to construction and enhancement of wells as compiled and adopted by the County of Orange, three (3) copies of which have been filed with the City Clerk of the city of Huntington Beach for use and examination by the public, is adopted and enacted as the Well Construction and Abandonment Ordinance of the city of Huntington Beach as fully as though the same were set forth herein, and for the purposes stated therein. (1919-6/74)

14.26.020 Requirements augment existing regulations. The requirements of this chapter shall be in addition to any other requirements of the city of Huntington Beach, and before a permit is issued by the city, satisfactory proof of compliance with all provisions relating thereto must be presented to the director of public works. (1919-6/74)

14.26.030 Designation of advisory board. The Orange County Well Standards Advisory Board, established by Orange County Ordinance No. 2607, dated July 18, 1972, is designated as the Well Standards Advisory Board of the city of Huntington Beach. (1919-6/74)

14.26.040 Adaptation of designations.

- (a) Any reference to "unincorporated territory" in said Orange County Ordinance No. 2607 shall mean "territory within the boundaries of the city."
- (b) Reference to Government Code section 28545 in Orange County Ordinance No. 2607 shall mean section 29773.5 of the Government Code, the appropriate section applicable to cities. (1919-6/74)

14.26.050 Permit fee schedule. The City Council shall adopt, by resolution, an appropriate permit fee schedule for construction, reconstruction and abatement of abandoned wells. (1919-6/74)